Considering the Priesthood or Religious Life?

A house divided against itself cannot stand. But the Church has the Eucharist as our point of unity. Who will provide this Sacrament to unify tomorrow's Church? Perhaps God is calling you to this mission?

Contact Fr. Dave Baker at 716-847-5535 or visit buffalovocations.org.

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. ### - HOPE -

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

I consider the sufferings of the present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us."

- Romans 8:16-18

For more information on the insert in this weekend's bulletin, please see the binders in the back of church.

You may also speak with Fr. Jim, Michelle Swain and Dick Kinney.

They will be having a meeting on Wednesday to discuss the Diocesan Plan and if we want to make changes. If you have suggestions, please speak with them before Wednesday.

All phone numbers are in the bulletin.

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." Jn 13:35

When the Father sent His Son to us, it was His intention that all people would become brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ. Let us always treasure this relationship that we have with all who share faith in him. May we also treat every person as our brother or sister that they may share in Christ's love. May our example bring others to Him.

- Magnificat June 2024, Vol.26, No.4

Rest in His Heart

Continuing on the theme for this month: the Sacred Heart: A common practice since the promotion of this devotion throughout the 17th century and into the 19th century when Pius IX made it a universal feast has been to consecrate one's home and self to Christ's Sacred Heart and to have an image placed in one's home. This is connected to one of the promises Christ has made to those who have a devotion to His Sacred Heart, that is: "I will establish peace in their homes," and it also helps to establish and show that one's house is a Catholic home. In order to foster this devotion I will include the individual prayer of consecration below along with a small image that may be cut out. However, if anyone would like a more durable image to place, let me know and I can retrieve one.

(the image is on the front of the bulletin)

"O Sacred Heart of Jesus, to Thee I consecrate and offer up my person and my life, my actions, trials, and sufferings, that my entire being may henceforth only be employed in loving, honoring and glorifying Thee. This is my irrevocable will, to belong entirely to Thee, and to do all for Thy love, renouncing with my whole heart all that can displease Thee.

I take Thee, O Sacred Heart, for the sole object of my love, the protection of my life, the pledge of my salvation, the remedy of my frailty and inconstancy, the reparation for all the defects of my life, and my secure refuge at the hour of my death. Be Thou, O Most Merciful Heart, my justification before God Thy Father, and screen me from His anger which I have so justly merited. I fear all from my own weakness and malice, but placing my entire confidence in Thee, O Heart of Love, I hope all from Thine infinite Goodness. Annihilate in me all that can displease or resist Thee. Imprint Thy pure love so deeply in my heart that I may never forget Thee or be separated from Thee.

I beseech Thee, through Thine infinite Goodness, grant that my name be engraved upon Thy Heart, for in this I place all my happiness and all my glory, to live and to die as one of Thy devoted servants. Amen." - St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

- Fr. Jeffrey Donovan

Fundraising meeting

June 14

Regular

$ 1530.00

To keep up with basic expenses, we need to bring in $1,500 in weekly donations.
Thank you for your generosity.

It is imperative for people to use their collection envelopes when they donate. This is how the Diocese tracks our financial status. If people are not registered or using their envelopes then the Diocese doesn't consider this a viable donation.

Please, if you have envelopes USE THEM. If you do not have them and would like to be registered and receive them, please fill out the Registration Form, on the wall above the table in the back of church, or, call the office. You may put registration forms in the collection basket or leave in the office. Thank you!

New Family Catechesis

We will be using the series, "Christ Our Life," in our new "Family" Catechesis Program.

Please watch Joe's presentation with this link to see how this program will work and why it's important to have parents be involved in their children's faith formation.

Joe Paprocki's webinar regarding the importance of Family Faith Formation while using Loyola Press resources. <https://vimeo.com/947492300/a32756fd75?share=copy>

We will meet once a month, here at St. Mary's and have some time with parents and children together at first. Then children will go off for their lesson with their teacher, while the parents will learn what and how to teach their children at home for the remainder of the month.

There will be a total of 7 slide show presentations; 5 themed, 2 seasonal, 2 bonus.

We would also like to meet a 2nd time during the month for "Hands-on" learning, "AllSaints Party, Stations of the Cross, Eucharistic Adoration, etc."

Parents will have lots of help along the way with an At-Home Guide and sessions broken down step by step. For those with multiple children at different grade levels there is instructions on how to teach them together.

More information will be coming!
